RADIOLOGY POSTER RUBRIC

Minimum Standard Requirements A poster receiving an evaluation of "unacceptable" in any of these first three areas is considered unfinished and receives no grade.	Excellent 5 points Has all component and then some. Appealing, creative poster.	Good 4 points Organized, appealing poster, includes more than just what is needed.	Adequate 3 points Includes bare minimum-does not go the extra mile .	Weak 2 points Doesn't have all the components listed. Is disorganized.	Unacceptable 1 point Doesn't have all components. You can tell the student didn't put in much effort.
Content:
(1) The poster uses the conventions of standard edited English: 's vs. s; lack of comma splices, run-on sentences, and sentence fragments, and correct spelling. No grammatical, spelling or punctuation errors.
(2) Details on the poster cover the important information about the topic. The minimum content requirements: a. Definition of the modality b. Why and when the modality can be used? c. Educational Requirements d. Image of the modality e. Earning Potential f. Job availability Licensing requirements. Other topics that could be included: Why is this modality important? How does this modality complement x-rays? History of development. What did you find most interesting about this? What didn't you like?
(3) The poster's sources and the use of those sources are appropriate for college writing. This includes the quality and quantity of sources, as well as the analysis and integration of them into the essay. The sources must be listed on the poster in the bottom right hand corner.
(4)All graphics are related to the topic and make it easier to understand. Must include two graphics: a. One picture of the modality b. Images from the modality.

Organization:
(1)Information is very organized with clear titles and subheadings.
(2)Graphics are used in appropriate places and enhance the information.
(3)Layout and Design of all information on the poster is in focus and can be easily viewed from 6 ft. away. Poster is aesthetically pleasing and contributes to the overall message with appropriate headings, subheadings, and white space.
(4)Layout and Design of all information on the poster flows in a logical progression. One step leads to the next.
(5)Poster shows originality and creativity.
Poster Presentation:
(1)Poster presentation should be approximately 10 minutes long, not less than 8minutes and not more than 15 minutes.
(2)The presentation is clear. Defines modality and intent of poster. Includes all required content specification. (see content #2)
(3)Speaks in a clear, loud, confident voice.
(4)Presentation references sources used by using direct quotes, evidence from reading material or from personnel experience.
(5)Presentation is well-organized, focused, and unified. Must have an effective beginning, middle and end.
(6)Presenter looks professional. Presenter looks prepared and comes across as practiced.
Overall Evaluation

Total points 1-75=   Grade (0-100%)=

Important Notes:
1. Modality presented by student is chosen by a random draw.
2. The poster and presentation is worth 20% of the final grade.
3. Posters are due electronically to the instructor April 30th. Presentation will be during the final week of the course.