PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

ONGI ETORRI

The Elko Euzkaldunak Club was first organized in December 1959. In 1964, Nevada's Centennial year, the club sponsored the first National Basque Festival. The first festival was a tremendous success, and was acclaimed one of the outstanding centennial events. Each succeeding year has seen the festival grow in popularity.

Therefore, in behalf of the Elko Euzkaldunak Club, I welcome you to Elko and the ninth National Basque Festival. We hope you'll enjoy the program we have arranged. The costumes, dances, games and language you will see and hear during these two days have come down to us through the centuries, somewhat polished and perfected, but otherwise unchanged. The costumes and dances originated before the Feudal Times. Our games, which today will be performed for the sake of competition and your pleasure, at one time originated from pure necessity as our forefathers wrested a living from a land that was rock-bound or heavily wooded. No theory yet offered has proved the origin of our language. This element of mystery is perhaps one more reason why our "Euzkira" is so dear to us.

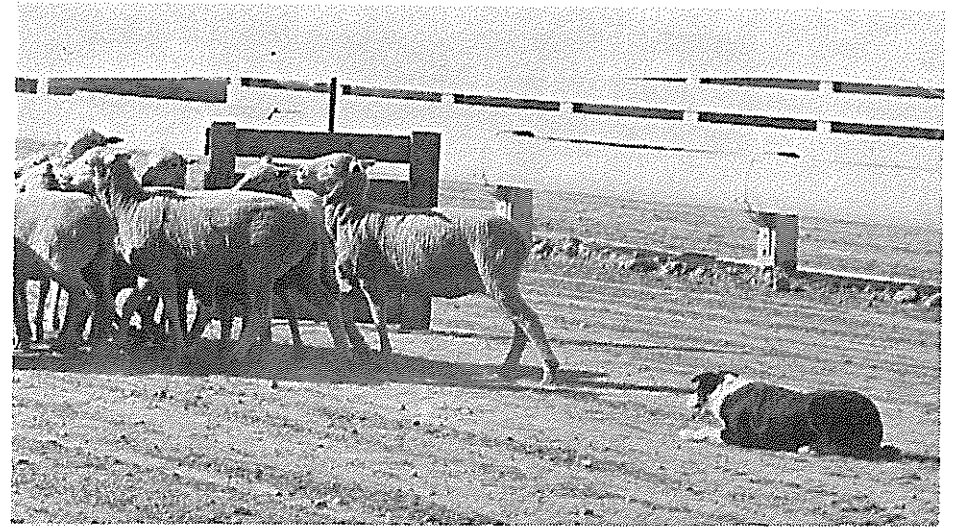

"Ongi Etorri" in our Basque tongue means welcome. This our people certainly are to the United States, for this land has offered us the rights and privileges of all Americans and yet not only allowed but encouraged us to keep our pride in our Basque culture.

For these two days, let us all, guests, friends and fellow Basque alike, enjoy a re-enactment of the past in a present feeling of festivity, with an eye to continued good will in the future.

Eskerriak asko eta agur,

Jim Ithurralde, President
Elko Euzkaldunak Club

"MOSS" the champion sheepdog for many years will give his final performance at the National Basque Festival 1972. This dog has been a very popular attraction in several Basque festivals. Moss is 13 years old and his owner, Reg Griffin, has decided to retire him after this show.
