

First, the Festival. Then, the Stockmen's.

After a day at the Basque Festival, there's nothing like a night at the Stockmen's. For food, fun, entertainment, and relaxation, the Stockmen's is Elko's top spot for good times. So welcome to the Festival, and welcome to the Stockmen's, where we all say "Dembora Onak Gazatu Emer!"

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to the 28th National Basque Festival. As so beautifully expressed on our program cover by Ivone Samper, the Elko Basques have "American Pride". We salute the men and women of "Desert Storm" and all veterans, for having kept America free, so that festivals like ours can happen now and in the future.

Elko has been the home of The National Basque Festival for 28 years. Many of the Basques who worked hard in those first years now have children or grandchildren keeping the traditions alive. As our activities unfold, please note the many sponsors and ads of businesses who deserve a special word of thanks for their generous support.

Listed below are the officers, board of directors and committee chairmen for 1991. Space does not allow to list all workers but there are many and thanks to you all.

NABO HANDBALL

FRIDAY, JULY 5 - 9:00 a.m./Elko vs. San Francisco, Semi-Final Games

SUNDAY, JULY 7 - 8:00 a.m./Finals

$3.00 Entry Requested

The Fronton is in the Elko City Park. Games are being played in the morning to accommodate all players.

The Elko Basque Club would like to dedicate 1991 handball to the memory of Manuel Arbillaga. Manuel loved handball and supported the game as a spectator, giving encouragement to players of all ages. Many youngsters, over the years got a "soft" handsewn pelota from Manuel that helped them develop their hands.

FRIDAY, JULY 5, 1991

AMERICAN PRIDE
NATIONAL BASQUE FESTIVAL KICKOFF

7:00 P.M. in the street by the Stockmen's Motor Hotel. Dancing by the Elko Basque Dancers, exhibitions by weight lifters and woodchoppers.

Teresa Franzoia

Gabriel Arbillaga

The youngsters pictured above show some of the traditional Basque dress for festival dancers. The satin skirt, vest over blouse and head scarf in some combination of red, white, green and black are worn by girl dancers. The boys will be found in the blue, shown above, to any combination of red, white, green and black, pants, vests, shirts and berets. Teresa's mom, Anita Anacabe Franzoia, and Gabriel's father, Fermin Arbillaga are former Elko Basque dancers. Gabriel's grandmother, Ana Marie was for many years the principle dance instructor for all the Elko dancers.

BASQUE GAMES AND CONTESTS

ADMISSION: $5.00 per person

Opening by Bernardo Yanci and the Elko "Arinak" dancers. Invited dance groups to perform between games. The American National Anthem will be sung by Loretta Jones, Sr. Miss Nevada, 1990.

Joe Goicoechea was the champion for many years in the weight carrying contest. His style was once reported as "a man out for a stroll". Today we will see contestants run, jog and stagger, as many struggle to go over 500 ft., in his prime Joe was always good for 850 to 1,000 ft.

JUNIOR WEIGHT CARRYING CONTEST

Trophies sponsored by Red Lion Inn & Casino

The Junior Weight Carrying is opened to boys 16 and under. Weights to be carried 150 lbs. (75 lb. weight in each hand). Permission release forms must be signed by parents in order to enter this event.

Benito Goitiandia shown above is being recognized by the Elko Basque Club for the many, many years that he made The National Basque Festival worth watching. Benito made the 225 lb granite ball look easy and has been credited with the movement of the ball called the "Basque Necktie". We salute Benny on this occasion of the 28th National Basque Festival.

SHEEPHOOKING

The sheephooking contest has its roots in the everyday life of a shepherd. The sheephook is to him like the rope is to the cowboy. The sheephook allows the herder to catch a sheep without injuring the animal. Our contests puts one man, on foot, in the pen, to hook one sheep, drag it to a post and tie one foot so the animal cannot get away. The fastest time wins.

1990 TIMES:

1st - Angel Carrillo, 20.2 Sec.

2nd - Amador Zabalbeascoa, 24.4 Sec.

3rd - John Lagarza, 25.5 Sec.
